SINISTRAL BREWING COMPANY TO OPEN IN HISTORIC DOWNTOWN MANASSAS

City of Manassas, VA . . .Sinistral Brewing Company plans to bring a new brewery to Historic Downtown Manassas. The 3,500 square foot brewery, located at 9423 Main Street, adjacent to the Philly Tavern, will consist of a 7-barrel brewhouse, taproom and beer garden.

“The City of Manassas is excited to welcome Sinistral Brewing to our Historic Downtown,” said City Manager W. Patrick Pate. “The City of Manassas has quickly become the location of choice for craft brewers and distilleries because of our unique, vibrant and business friendly environment.”

Direct from owner and head brewer Blane Perry’s passion for the art and craft of brewing, Sinistral Brewing Company will offer a selection of flagship beers, rotating seasonal specialties and experimental beers using locally sourced ingredients. Flight tastings, pints and crowler fills will all be available.

“Sinistral Brewing Company will be both a destination for craft beer aficionados and a fun, neighborhood hang out for beer lovers in Historic Downtown Manassas. The opportunity to bring my love of craft beer and brewing to the Northern Virginia craft brewing scene is a dream come true for me,” said Blane Perry, of the planned opening.

Sinistral Brewing Company is slated to open during the summer of 2017. Until then, you can follow their progress at www.facebook.com/sinistralbrewingcompany.
